What we do

How does Peoples State Bank of Commerce protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

We restrict access to personal information to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you.

How does Peoples State Bank of Commerce collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or deposit money
- pay your bills or provide account information
- use your debit card

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
